

2021 World Championship Hunter Rider PA Announcements

WCHR

The USHJA World Championship Hunter Rider Program was founded in 1995 to recognize and celebrate the hunter rider. Since the inaugural World Championship Hunter Rider Professional Finals in 1995, the WCHR program has expanded to include coveted year-end awards for Professionals, Developing Professionals, Amateur Owners, Amateur Adults, Juniors, Children's and Pony riders. We invite you to enjoy this week's WCHR Member Event.

Palm Beach Spectacular

1. The Palm Beach Spectacular first debuted in 1997 as an expansion of the popular World Championship Hunter Rider program. The Spectacular was created as a premier Hunter Classic, and is part of the member event series for the WCHR program which culminates with the WCHR Finals at The Capital Challenge Horse Show in October.
2. During the sixth week of competition at the 2021 Winter Equestrian Festival, February 16-21, in Wellington, FL, for the 24th year in a row, Palm Beach Spectacular exhibitors will have the opportunity to display the very best in show hunters on center stage. The event will be held on Saturday night under the lights in the International Arena, with professionals, juniors, and amateurs all going head to head in the class. Exhibitors qualify for the Spectacular through their performance during the 2020 WCHR competition year and during Week 6 of the 2021 Winter Equestrian Festival in Wellington, FL.

West Coast Spectacular

The 2021 World Championship Hunter Rider West Coast Hunter Spectacular is set to take place during Desert Circuit VIII, March 16-20, in Thermal, CA. All WCHR Members are eligible to participate in this class with fence height options set at 3'6, 3'9" or 4'0".

Summer Spectacular

New for 2021, the World Championship Hunter Rider Summer Spectacular is set to take place during Blenheim June Classic I, June 9-13, in San Juan Capistrano, CA. All WCHR Members are eligible to participate in this class with fence height options set at 3'6, 3'9" or 4'0".

Capital Challenge

WCHR Program Members qualify for National and Regional Awards by earning points at Member Events held across the country throughout the qualifying year. Points from a rider's top four WCHR Member Events will be used to determine the National and Regional standings. Each year the top ten nationally ranked riders and top six regionally ranked riders in each category come together to compete in the WCHR Finals at the Capital Challenge Horse Show in Upper Marlboro, MD. This year the Capital Challenge Horse show will be held October 4-10, 2021.

CWD Sellier, The Official Saddle of the USHJA

Thank you to CWD for being the official saddle of the USHJA in 2021. CWD has supported USHJA as a sponsor since 2016. CWD is a sport saddle maker, primarily known for innovation for the welfare of horses and performance of riders. Ten years ago, the company spent more than $2 million to develop its dynamic tree that aims to provide the perfect mix of flex and pressure distribution for the horse's comfort. Since then, the company has launched the "mademoiselle" saddle—the first hunter/jumper saddle developed specifically for the female rider. CWD's commitment to high-quality leather and a vegetable tanning process sets their saddles apart in longevity.
