

USHJA Zone Election Nomination Form

Zone: 5

Candidate USHJA #: 101844

Candidate Name: Gregory Franklin

Equestrian Participation:

Greg Franklin is the head trainer at Canterbury Farm, he is dedicated to producing riders and horses in the Hunter, Equitation, and Jumper rings that are competitive at local, national and international levels. His commitment to providing people and horses with the guidance necessary to bring out their greatest potential provides those who train with him the tools, focus and discipline necessary to achieve success. For over 30 years, he has ridden hunters to numerous championships all over the country and has brought many different horses to Horse of the Year awards in Zone Five. Greg also understands what it takes to achieve success in the Equitation ring, having trained a Reserve Champion in the Midwest Region of the ASPCA Maclay championships. He has qualified horses and riders for the Pennsylvania National, Washington International and the National Horse in the Junior Hunter Division Amateur Owner Hunter Division and Regular Working Hunter Division. While at HITS in Ocala, FL he trained the pony Equitation 2011 Circuit Champion. He has also shown internationally at Spruce Meadows in the 1.40 and 1.45. Gregs local, national and international networking with top professionals allows him to stay current, cutting edge and comprehensive in his riding and training.

Governance Experience:

Greg has his R in the Hunters, Hunter Seat Equitation, and Jumpers, and judges many shows throughout the country, bringing home with him a unique judges eye perspective to those who train with him.