

2022 USHJA ZONE

CHEF D'EQUIPE APPLICATION

Thank you for your interest in serving as a USHJA Zone Championship Chef d'Equipe. This exciting and rewarding role will assist in the development of equestrian athletes through several zone team championships held throughout the competition year. The role of the Chef d'Equipe is not to be a trainer, coach, or competition manager. The role of the Chef d'Equipe is to understand the specifications and format of the competition and be available to team members and their trainers to answer any questions concerning the event.

The job of the Chef d'Equipe also includes handling all interactions with licensed officials, competition management/staff, and USHJA representatives as it pertains to the team. The Chef d'Equipe is the overall leader and manager of athlete/horse combinations that are participating on a zone team at a championship.

In order to be considered for the position of Chef d'Equipe, a member must meet the requirements, complete an application, and submit it to USHJA no later than 45 days Prior to Competition. The number of Chef d'Equipe positions available may vary by Zone.

APPLICANT REQUIREMENTS

1. Current Active Senior member in good standing with USHJA and USEF.
2. Agree to attend one or more of the following USHJA Zone Jumper Team Championship, USHJA Platinum Jumper Championships, USEF Pony Jumper Championship, USEF National Junior Jumper Championships (Prix de States), or North American Youth Championships (NAYC).
3. Individuals selected to serve as team Chefs d'Equipe must have completed:
 - the annual Safe Sport Training
 - a background check within the past five years, provided the results to USHJA
 - Concussion training
 - Service Agreement and USHJA Waiver and Release

RESPONSIBILITIES

Please see the Chef d'Equipe position description the full responsibilities and requirements of role.

* PLEASE FOLLOW THESE DIRECTIONS CAREFULLY. APPLICATIONS THAT ARE INCOMPLETE WILL NOT BE CONSIDERED.
