All horses officially entered in any USHJA Equitation Finals must jog for soundness during the Official Jog in order to compete. This jog will be held within 24 hours of the start of the first round and run similar to an FEI jog.

Horses must be presented with their competition number and wearing a bridle with a noseband.

Proper attire is required for handlers, including protective headgear for Juniors.

The judging panel will consist of the competition veterinarian and a minimum of one competition judge.

Horses will be evaluated going directly away and back from the judging panel on a level surface. Upon the recommendation of the veterinarian, the judge will decide if the horse passes.

If a horse does not pass the jog, the exhibitor may request to re-present the horse. The judge may decide to allow the horse to re-present at any time up to one hour prior to the start of the class. The veterinarian and one judge from the original panel must be present. After re-presentation, the decision of the judge is final and not subject to appeal.
